

Background Checks for the On-demand Healthcare Workforce

Bring Onboarding of Contracted Workers In-house

Sterling's On-demand Healthcare Services

On-demand healthcare companies are turning to Sterling to help seamlessly onboard and monitor contracted nurses and healthcare professionals, not only saving money and time, but also minimizing risk. Sterling's effective onboarding service includes:

Seamless Customizable Workflows

Sterling's native API integration can be customized to fit with your onboarding team's existing workflow to create a user-friendly candidate experience.

Eliminate Manual Checks

Our automated checks eliminate the admin burden of manual verification of contracted workers' history. Our solution runs in real-time, significantly reducing the number of resources healthcare companies need to allocate monthly or quarterly.

Automated Continuous Monitoring

Medical license status, sanctions, and criminal activity monitoring allows on-demand healthcare providers to proactively mitigate risk stemming from candidates' illegal activities, across states and on a reoccurring schedule.
